Art and Gifts from the Heart and the Heartland

Now more than ever, buying local never looked so good! CCA Gallery features art and gifts from the heartland. Popular with local as well as out-of-town visitors, the CCA Gallery is the place for Indiana art. Are you looking for that truly distinctive, one-of-a-kind gift or piece of handmade art that you won't find at the mall, online, in a catalog, or anywhere else? At CCA Gallery, even the most discriminating buyer will find that perfect gift from the heart created in the Indiana heartland.

"There has never been a better time to shop local than now," says Carol Bell, contributing artist at CCA Gallery. Bell has been highlighted as the December Feature Artist showcasing her one-of-a-kind, hand-thrown Blue Moon Pottery collection in her feature show "Small Indulgences." She continues, "A gift of art is not always expected and doesn't have to be extravagant, but it is always appreciated."

Supporting Both the Artists and the Community

When you buy original works of art from CCA Gallery, you help support local artists in the process. Not only can you select something beautiful to give as a gift or to enhance your home, but you can also benefit by giving back to the community. As Indiana's premier artist-owned gallery, CCA brings these works from the artists' studios directly to you. Since there is no "middle man," prices are kept well below those of traditional galleries.

This year, CCA Gallery will once again feature a "Giving Tree" displaying handcrafted ornaments donated by artists. CCA will give 100% of the proceeds of the sale of these exclusive ornaments to their chosen charity this year, "Horses for Heroes" sponsored by Edelweiss Equine Assisted Therapy Center in Greenfield, Indiana. This program offers the use of hands-on rehabilitation with horses for veterans who have suffered from wartime injuries and challenges including Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). www.horses4therapy.org

CCA Gallery ~ A Mainstay for 30 Years and Counting

The Center for Creative Arts (CCA) was first established in 1978 from the Art League. The original group of artists wanted to jointly showcase, promote, and sell their work together. Previously located in Broad Ripple for 24 years, CCA moved to the quaint, historic village of Zionsville, regionally known for its fine shopping, dining, and brick-lined Main Street. Bell admits, "Zionsville is quickly becoming a must-see tourism spot and art destination community... it just oozes with charm. It's the kind of place you want to linger; it feels like home. In fact, many people who have to move away from this area hope to capture special memories by taking a special handmade art memento of Indiana with them." is held on the first Friday of every month from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Come to the CCA Gallery during Zionsville's popular "Art After 5 Gallery Walk." This entertaining, cultural experience is held on the first Friday of every month from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.
